PRESS RELEASE 03/06/2025- Highway 101/Guiles Rd Motor Vehicle Collision

On Thursday morning, March 06, at 5:43 am, PenCom dispatched Clallam County Fire District #3 to a reported 2 (two) car motor vehicle collision at Highway 101 and Guiles Road East of Sequim.

Engine 37 from Blyn arrived at the scene first and reported a small SUV was struck from the rear by a box truck. The driver of the SUV was the sole occupant of that vehicle. After extrication, they were airlifted from Sequim Emergency Helistop to Harborview Medical Center.

The box truck was driven by a sole occupant who reported no injuries and denied further evaluation on scene.

The highway was blocked in both directions while the crews worked.

Washington State Patrol was on scene for traffic control and to investigate the incident. The cause of the accident is still under investigation.

The Fire District responded with one (1) structural engine, one (1) rescue truck, one (1) medic unit, one (1) community paramedic, and one (1) command vehicle. Olympic Ambulance responded with one (1) ambulance.
